for football, basketball, track, and softball. She participated in UIL, and has been a part of the yearbook team for two years. She participated in the Shattered Dreams program that the CHS student council put on to inform teens about drinking and driving. She plans to attend college at West Texas A&M University in Canyon, Texas, in the fall to study medicine and become a nurse in the future.

Noab Riley Elam

Noab Elam, son of Brad and Adelita Elam, has been engaged with many different activities at Clarendon High School. He is valedictorian of the 2019 graduating class. He participated in football and baseball all four years of high school and basketball his freshman through junior years. Academically, Noab participated in UIL all four years. He advanced to regionals in current events & issues and social studies all four years, and computer applications his sophomore through junior years. He advanced to state in current events & issues his freshman and junior years and social studies his junior year. Noab also was inducted into National Honor Society his junior year and participated as a member his senior year. His senior year, Noab made the academic all-state team in football and received the 2019 CHS Young Man of the Year award from the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce. He also has written a column for The Clarendon Enterprise. He plans to attend Sam Houston State University to study law.

Preston Maddux Elam

Preston Elam, son of Brad and Adelita Elam, has attended all four years at Clarendon High School. He is ranked fifth of his graduating class of 2019. While staying on top of his grades, he participated in football, basketball, baseball, and UIL. He has received all-state awards in baseball and football. He was on the state finalists team for basketball, played a big role in the state quarter-finalist football team, and started as a freshman on the regional semifinalist baseball team. Not only did he receive all state awards, but every year he received an all-district award of some kind. Additionally, he made it into the newspaper multiple times, was athlete of the week in multiple sports, and was on the Amarillo Globe News super team. His future is still questionable of whether it will take him to the military or college.

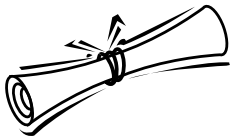

Brandalyn Gayle Ellis

Brandalyn Ellis is the daughter of Guy and Robin Ellis. She has lived in Clarendon, Texas, for her entire life, attending the school since kindergarten. Caton qualified for regionals in all the sports he participated in and made it to state in basketball where he scored in the state tournament. Caton also competed in many UIL speaking events as well as countless livestock judging competitions and major stock shows. Caton plans to attend Trinity Valley located in Athens, Texas, where he will be a part of the beef cattle show team where he will show Charolais bulls and heifers at major shows.

Jenci Hernandez

Jenci Hernandez is the daughter of Jesus and Dora Hernandez. She has lived in Clarendon all her life. She has attended Clarendon since Head Start. While in high school, she ran track her freshman year, qualifying for regionals that year. Jenci was a trainer for football her freshman, sophomore, and senior years, and a baseball trainer her sophomore, junior, and senior years. She was a sweetheart the Clarendon Lions Club her senior year.

Payton Neal Hicks

Payton Hicks, son of Jeremy and Carrie Hicks, played baseball all four years of high school and played football his freshman, junior, and senior years. He went to the state quarterfinals his junior year, and regional championship his senior year. In baseball every year, he and his team made a deep run. Payton received all-district honors for baseball his sophomore, junior, and senior years. He also received all-district honors for football his junior year. Payton plans to attend Clarendon College to achieve his associate's degree.

Emily Rae Johnson

Emily Johnson, daughter of Kevin and Cheryl Johnson, was very involved academically and athletically in high school. She participated in basketball and softball all four years of high school, tennis her freshman, junior, and senior years of high school, track her freshman year, cheerleading her sophomore and junior years. She also participated in National Honor Society her senior year, UIL calculator skills her freshman, sophomore, and junior years, annual staff her sophomore and senior years, and student council her junior and senior years. In basketball, she received academic all-district her freshman, sophomore, and senior years, and received honorable mention her senior year. Jessica Nicole Lowrie Jessica Nicole Lowrie is the daughter of Sharon and Jason Lowrie. She attended Clarendon High School for all four years. She also participated in football and baseball as a trainer her freshman and sophomore years. She plans to go to either Clarendon College or Wade Gordon Hairdressing Academy in Amarillo, Texas, for cosmetology school. She hopes to open her own salon and boutique someday.

Ryan Cole McCleskey

Ryan Cole McCleskey is the son of Joey and April Yankie and brother of Zack Caison. He was a Texas all state running back champion, played football for four years, and was a powerlifter for two years. He also ran track for three years. He has always been a dedicated type of guy, whether that was getting in competitive eating or just plain working out to better himself. Regardless of which sport was going on at the time, he was a competitor and had a mindset of a king. He had some friends but kept his circle small and he went far. He always believed in being kind and nice and never judged a book by its cover. That is what he has stuck by his whole life, and this is why he was successful.

Alexus Kay Powell

Alexus Powell, daughter of Brandi and Matthew Powell, has attended all four years at Clarendon High School. She participated in band her freshman and sophomore years. She also volunteered on Mondays through Thursdays at the Head Start and first grade program. She will either attend Amarillo College for nursing or Clarendon College to become a cosmetologist.

Congratulations, GRADUATES

Commencement day is finally here, and we would like to wish you the best of luck every step of the way on your path to success. Keep setting your sights high, giving it nothing less than your best effort, and you will be sure to ultimately reach your goals.

Congratulations to all the Donley County Seniors on a job well done!
