The Birth of Jesus

FROM THE BOOK OF LUKE, CHAPTER 2 – NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. ² (This was the first census that took place while [a] Quirinius was governor of Syria.) ³ And everyone went to their own town to register.

⁴ So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. ⁵ He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. ⁶ While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, ⁷ and she gave birth to her first-born, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them.

⁸ And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. ⁹ An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. ¹⁰ But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. ¹¹ Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. ¹² This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.”

¹³ Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

¹⁴ “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests.”

¹⁵ When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.”

¹⁶ So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. ¹⁷ When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, ¹⁸ and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. ¹⁹ But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰ The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

Hello my name is Zoe Lynn Thompson, and all I want for Christmas is a stepmom.
I know you're probably not capable of that but it's something I've been wanting for a long time. My dad said it's probably never going to happen but I think it will someday. I would also like a hedgehog if you don't mind, I know, I know it went from a stepmom to a hedgehog, my mom and I have always wanted a hedgehog, and I think my dad likes them (I hope my dad likes them). This is not only for me but it is for my parents too, but I think we will have to keep it away from my dog's, just like that tourtis my dad and I had. Anyways, I hope you have a great holiday, and tell Commit I said hi. Merry Christmas.

Sincerely,
Zoe Lynn Thompson

Dear Santa,
First, I would like to wish everybody a wonderful Christmas! I wish I had a game system and games for it. I hope you get sweet cookies and some warm milk, and fall asleep in my living room so I can see you in the morning then I will jump on your belly!

Sincerely,
Le'Derideon Williams
