Gifting this season and Alzheimer's

Bv Scott Finley

In my neighborhood, some folks have skipped Thanksgiving and gone directly to the Christmas lights. There's no doubt we all could use some extra cheer as we approach the end of 2021.

You can provide some extra cheer for those living with Alzheimer's and for their caregivers as well this season. Here are some gifting ideas to help you get started

Gifts for people with Alzheimer's in the early stages:

Items to help remember things: magnetic reminder refrigerator pads; Post-It notes; baskets or trays that can be labeled within cabinets or drawers; a small pocket-sized diary or notebook; erasable white boards for key rooms in the house; and a memorable calendar featuring family photos - write special family occasions such as birthdays and anniversaries

Items to help with everyday tasks: automatic medication dispenser that can help the person living with Alzheimer's remember to take medicine; nightlights that come on automatically when it gets dark; and a clock with the date and time in large type.

Items to help keep the person engaged: an outing to a movie, play or concert, sporting event, museum or possibly an organized holiday shopping trip with friends and family; favorite musical CDs or CD with compilation of favorite tunes; a DVD collection of favorite movies or subscription to a streaming service; and activities such as scrapbooking or other craft projects

Gifts for people with Alzheimer's in the middleto-late stages: Sensory stimulation gifts. Stimulating the five senses may bring back pleasant memories. Give gifts such as: scented lotions, a fluffy bathrobe in a favorite color, a soft blanket or afghan to keep warm.

Clothes. Get comfortable, easy to remove, easily washable clothes such as: sweat suits, knits, large banded socks, shoes with Velcro ties, and wrinkle free nightgowns, nightshirts and robes.

Music. Research shows that music has a positive impact on individuals with Alzheimer's, bringing them back to good times, increasing stimulation and providing an opportunity to interact with family members. Buy favorite CDs or burn a CD full of musical favorites

Framed photographs or a photo collage. Copy photos of family members and friends at photo centers, insert the names of the people in the photo and put in frames or in a photo album created specifically for that person.

Gifts for caregivers at any time:

Jens Ringness a Texas dreamer, farmer pulled.

They say that necessity is the mother of invention, but sometimes the inventor comes upon his creation quite by happenstance. Such was the case with Jens Ringness.

Ringness, a Norwegian, brought his family to East Texas in 1852, and then moved them to Bosque County in central Texas two years later. Although a farmer like most Texas settlers in those days, Ringness was once described as an "easy going, shiftless, not-to-eager-towork dreamer." In addition to farming, Ringness did a lot of tinkering in his blacksmith shop.

The trip to Bosque County would be long and hard over land that had only a few roads. Because the weather had been hot and dry the wood in his wagon wheels had shrunk and the iron tires on the wheels were loose. So in his blacksmith shop, Ringness adjusted the circumference of the tires to make them fit snuggly on the wheels.

As the family journeyed, the rains came, making the trip even more difficult. In many places the mud was almost

It was cutting a furrow – a rut with slanted sides such as a plow would make. The water-soaked wooden spokes had expanded, but the iron tire rim resisted the expansion. As a result, the spokes had bulged, and the wheel had taken on a cupped or concave shape With this special shape, the wheel was cutting a furrow instead of making an ordinary rut.

Jens Ringness' mind went to work dreaming about that warped wheel and the furrow it had made. After setting up his blacksmith shop in the family's

A gift for yourself. Arrange for respite care so you can enjoy a movie or lunch with a friend.

The gift of time. Cost-effective and truly meaningful gifts are self-made coupons for cleaning the house, cooking a meal, mowing the lawn, shoveling the driveway, and giving time off so a caregiver can do something to meet their needs.

Gift cards and certificates. Give gift certificates for restaurants, laundry/dry cleaning services, lawn care services, computer/technology support, maid services, and personal pampering services such as massages and pedicures.

Books. In addition to giving novels on the caregiver's "must read" list, there are also a number of books on caregiving such as "The 36-Hour Day" by N.L.Mace and P.V. Rabins; "The Best Friends Approach to Alzheimer's Care" by V. Bell and D. Troxel: and "Alzheimer's: A Caregiver's Guide and Sourcebook," by H. Gruetzner; and "Coach Broyles' Playbook for Alzheimer's Caregivers" by Frank Broyles. Also consider giving book on CD.

Digital Video Recorder (DVR). Purchase a DVR and years' worth of a downloading service so the caregiver can record favorite shows or sports programs he or she may not be able watch in real time due to care responsibilities.

With a little forethought, holiday gift giving traditions can continue to be rewarding.

Braces, casts, crutches lead to happy life older than

"In 1937 my dad hitched a team to a wagon and we went down the road a couple of miles to a neighbor's house for Sunday dinner," says Dewain Collins, who was living in Weatherford at the time. "I was 11 months old and just learning to walk. Sometime that afternoon I began to get sick. We went on back home and I laid around sick for a couple of days. My parents decided I needed to go see a doctor because I was paralyzed from the waist down."

He was taken to the Scottish Rite Hospital in Dallas where he was diagnosed with infantile paralysis, later called polio.

"Doctors at the hospital said they were going to keep me and told my parents they could see me from 2 to 4 on Sunday afternoons, but because of my young age they said it would be best if they didn't come to see me at all I was at the hospital off and on for 10 or 12 years."

Because not much was known about the disease then, his sister, 2 years maneuvering. of texas "An old by tumbleweed smith janitor met me at the school bus, took me to classes, the rest room and to recess where I could sit on a rock fence and watch the other children play. Then after school he put me back on the school bus. He did that for 6 or 8 weeks."

Initially, Dwain was strapped to a board to keep his spine straight. Then he went to braces, casts and crutches.

"I got pretty good on the crutches and could keep up with the other kids. Without them I was limited in what I could do. The doctors had wanted me to get rid of the crutches, but I was reluctant to give them up. Finally, after 10 or 12 years I gave up the crutches and started walking without them. I did that for 60 plus years. Every once in a while, if I was going to be walking for sometime, I used the crutches. Most of the time I didn't need them."

After college Dewain wanted three things: a job, a car and a girl. So he hitchhiked to the oil patch.

"I ended up in Eunice, New Mexico, working for Halliburton dispatching trucks and all kinds of drilling rigs. Later I got a job with the Department of Public Safety and was a dispatcher 40 years. I worked at other jobs for another 20 years. In addition to a job I got a car and a girl who has been my wife for 63 years. We have a wonderful family, and overall, I would say I've had a good life so far."

Dewain, who now lives in Lubbock, credits his happy life to the Masons who founded the Scottish Rite Hospital 100 years ago. He is a Mason.

Obituaries Goodin

On Tuesday, November 23rd, Montie Goodin passed away, very peacefully, in her home surrounded by her family.

Services held were on Saturday, November 27, 2021 in the Claude United Methodist Church with Dick Gravley, officiating. Burial followed at Goodnight Cemetery.

Arrangements are under the direction of Robertson Funeral Directors of Clarendon.

Cleo Lemonte (Montie) Hubbard was born December 3rd, 1931, in Goodnight, in the original Goodnight House to Cleo and Retta Hubbard. Montie had three sisters, Marv Joyce, Lugenia (Jeannie) and Ann. Montie grew up in Goodnight and then attended Baylor University. On a visit home, she met Emery Goodin, on a blind date. When she graduated from Baylor, Montie flew to Alaska to marry Emery while he was serving in the Air Force on July 12, 1952. For five years, they lived in Alaska, giving them a lifetime of memories.

They returned to the Texas panhandle to start a family. In 1964, they moved to Goodnight, with their daughters, Elizabeth and Susanna. ing and Montie taught several grades in the Claude School District. She obtained her M.S. in Library Science and was instrumental in major renovations of the Claude School libraries.

She and Emery were avid square dancers and she played the organ at the First United Methodist Church. They also enjoyed fishing, camping, and travelling. Montie played in several bridge clubs in Claude and Clarendon.

Throughout her teaching career she was an active member of the international honor society for educators, Delta Kappa Gamma, Zeta Zeta Chapter, serving as chapter president for a time. In 2021, she received her 50-year pin.

Upon her retirement in 1994, Montie became very involved in both the preservation of the original Goodnight buffalo herd, and the Armstrong County Museum. During

Moment of fame

Local fans of the hit television show "Yellowstone" noticed a familiar face last week. Clarendon native Joe Leathers showed up on the series. Leathers, seen here in this shot from the show posted on the 6666 Lifestyle & Supply Facebook page, is the general manager of the 6666 Ranch and a member of the Clarendon High School Class of 1976. "Yellowstone" producers are currently shooting a prequel series, "1883," on this historic 6666 Ranch.

Hedley Junior High hosted the Valley Patriots last week, and both the boys' and girls' teams came up short on the scoreboard.

The HJH Lady Owls fought hard but were overcome by a 21-27 score in favor of Valley. Scoring for Hedley were Maddie Moore 15, Sabrina Smith 3, Megan Weatherread 2, and Kallie Curry 1.

The battle was tougher for the junior high Owls as they came up on the short end of the scoreboard, 24-45, in favor of the Patriots. Scoring for the Owls were Collin Alston 10, Dakota Bond 8, Payton Inman 4, and Eli Ritchie 2.

The junior high teams will be back in action December 6 in Silverton with games starting at 5 p.m.

TxDOT selects Reed director of area operations

Chris Reed, P.E., has been named the Childress District Director of Operations for the Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT).

Reed, a graduate of Childress High School, began his TxDOT career as a summer employee with the Childress District.

After graduating from Texas Tech University in 1997, he accepted a position with the City of Lubbock where he worked for the Traffic Engineering Department.

In 1999, Reed returned home where he worked as an Engineering Assistant for both the District Construction and Childress Area Office.

He was appointed TxDOT Childress Area Engineer in 2004, overseeing the operations of six counties including construction projects totaling over $250 million during his tenure

In 2015, he accepted the position of Childress District Director of Construction, a position he currently holds.

Reed and his wife, Lauren, are the parents of Olivia, Jonah, Maddox, Everleigh and Wrenleigh.

Lady Broncos beat Happy By Sandy Anderberg

The Lady Broncos played Claude and Happy over the Thanksgiving break and earned one win and one loss.

The ladies took on Claude on November 22 and narrowly lost 33-43. Junior Makenna Shadle had a huge game despite the loss as she put in 21 points that included four threepointers and making seven of eight from the bonus line. However; the second and fourth quarters did not go as planned as the Lady Broncos struggled to put points on the board.

A little bit of foul trouble plagued the Lady Broncos, but the Mustangs went to the free throw line nine times and only made four. Aubrey Weatherton put in six points, Finley Cunningham had four, and Hayden Elam made a pair of bonus points to finish with two.

The Lady Broncos were able to put the loss behind them and get a 42-33 win over Happy the next night. Defensively, the ladies were aggressive and did a good job containing the Cowgirls to only five points in the opening quarter of play. Their offensive execution gave them the upper hand they needed to get the win as they pumped in seven shots from the arc. Once again, Shadle led the way with 19 points and Weatherton added 10 to finish in double figures. Madie Smith added seven and Courtlyn Conkin helped with six.

The Lady Broncos will participate in the Miami Tournament on December 2-4 and travel to Vega December 7.

Lady Bronco JV clobber Happy 46-15

The junior varsity Lady Broncos completely dominated Happy at home on November 23 and won big at 46-15.

Everything went well for the ladies as they were able to stay out of foul trouble defensively and put points on the board at will. Happy struggled to stop the Lady Broncos and keep them off the board.

The ladies' defense was solid as they held the Cowgirls to single digits for the first two quarters of play.

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular Tuesday noon meeting November 30, 2021, with Boss Lion Pro Tem David Dockery in charge.

We had 16 members and no guests this week.

Lion Scarlet Estlack reported on the college where lab finals are being held this week with regular finals next week and basketball will wrap up its fall schedule this Saturday. Lion Travis Victory reported on the public school and upcoming basketball games.

Lion Jacob Fangman reported on the city and plans for a possible condemnation hearing on a longtime problem property. He also reported that the Polar Express event at the Mulkey raised $727 for the Donley County Community Fund. Combined with other donations through Giving Tuesday this week, the fund hopes to raise about $7,000.

Lion John Howard reported on the county and said 82 cases of COVID have been confirmed here in November and urged everyone to get their vaccine.

Lion Sandy Childress said new people are moving into Howardwick and things are good there.

Lion Sharlene Bordonaro reported on the Chamber's Shop Small event last weekend and plans for Late Night Shopping every Thursday in December through Christmas.

Plans for the Lions Christmas Food Baskets and Christmas Tree project were discussed, and the club discussed possible new ways to serve the community with those projects.

There being no further business, we were adjourned to spread Lionism and good cheer throughout our county.
