WT president turns back on free speech

Picture it. Clarendon College, 1991. A group of honor students is looking for a new way to raise money and have fun. The sponsor of the organization offers a suggestion: "I think you should have a beauty contest, but all the contestants are guys dressed as girls." The sponsor slips out the door. The guys in the group are hesitant, but the girls in the group latch onto the idea and run with it. The Miss Bulldog contest was born, the group raised some decent money, and the event continued on and off for several years. It got a little risqué at one point, but no one got hurt, and I got a Second Runner-Up sash. (The winner was a bit of a tramp, but that's another story.)

Thankfully, this all happened more than 30 years ago and Walter Wendler was not the president of our college. Otherwise, he might have labeled it a drag show and cancelled us for being misogynistic.

That's exactly what Dr. Wendler did last week for some students at West Texas

A&M University. "A Fool's Drag Race" was scheduled to be held March 31 to raise funds for an LGBTQ suicide-prevention group. According to reports from the Texas Tribune, WTAMU administrators guided the organizers through the event approval process starting in February, before President Wendler canceled the event last week.

"A harmless drag show? Not possible." Wendler wrote in a column his office submitted to the ENTER-PRISE and other newspapers last Tuesday.

In the column, Wendler bases his decision to cancel the show on the grounds that drag shows are demeaning to women. He writes: "As a performance exaggerating aspects of womanhood (sexuality, femininity, gender), drag shows stereotype women in cartoon-like extremes for the amusement of others and discriminate against womanhood."

I have never heard a woman say anything like that about drag, nor have I ever heard anyone try to make that argument. Wendler's comment, and in fact his entire column, is the most tortuous logic imaginable.

Drag shows are the fashionable thing for the far right to hate at the moment. Two years ago, no one had a problem with them. Now, they are portrayed as pure evil. In fact, Potter County GOP Chairman Dan Rogers on Thursday sent a message to the Enterprise calling for people to sign a petition supporting Wendler "in his stand against evil."

There is evil in this world without a doubt. But it's not a drag show. It's the ugliness of people like Wendler and Rogers who demonize others simply because they are different.

People have been enjoying men dressed in drag for a very long time. Milton Berle, Flip Wilson, Jack Lemmon, Bob Hope, Tom Hanks, and many others have all dressed in drag. Who can forget Mrs. Doubtfire portrayed by Robin Williams? Some may say, well these were harmless, but remember, Dr. Wendler says that's impossible.

Why? What has changed? Supporters of Dr. Wendler will tell you that drag shows today have become inappropriate. But I think really what has changed is the ability for people not to get offended and the ability of people to tolerate different points of view and different beliefs.

Dr. Wendler's columns have run in the ENTER-PRISE for several years; and until last week, he was a man I respected. But as a president of a state-financed university, he has an obligation to stand up for free speech, free expression, and most of all free thought. It's not only a moral obligation; it's the law. The Texas Legislature in 2019 – in a rare act of bipartisanship, as reported by the Texas Tribune - required universities to allow any person to engage in free-speech activities on campuses.

Wendler tried very hard to avoid addressing the lightning rod issues that have lately come with criticism of drag shows and instead tried to cloak himself as the righteous defender of womanhood with a healthy dose of bible verses and references to Natural Law. What he needs is some schooling in the United States Constitution, and he's likely to get that with the lawsuit he's now facing for his actions.

Does Wendler really believe what he wrote or is he just trying to keep the Randall-Potter county communities happy or pacify some big donor? We don't know, but we know what he did, and it was wrong.

Wendler's actions are just an example of what's going on these days. Our nation is seeing more and more of this kind of behavior. Last week, a Wisconsin elementary school first grade was stopped from performing Dolly Parton and Miley Cyrus' song "Rainbowland." School administrators pulled the plug on the performance. They also originally canceled a performance of Kermit the Frog's "The Rainbow Connection" but reversed that decision.

When Dolly Parton and Kermit the Frog are seen as offensive, we are living in a world gone crazy for Everyone needs to calm down and relax. Drag shows aren't inherently evil. Dolly Parton can't possibly be a problem, and Kermit is cool. Instead of spreading hate and dissent, we should try loving one another and be nice to each other – even to people we disagree with.

Reinstate the show, Dr. Wendler. Show the world that you're better than this and that WTAMU stands for freedom.

German residents organized 'beef club'

The First Texan Greek Was a Pirate It is believed that the first Greek to come to Texas was a pirate working with Jean Laffite. Known only as Captain Nicholas, he joined Laffite in 1817 at the age of seventeen at Savannah, Georgia, and he then came to Galveston Island aboard Laffite's Jupiter. Nicholas soon became skipper of a trading schooner, the Arabella, on which he served until 1820 when the pirate colony dissolved.

With a desire to have a wife, Nicholas purchased a bride from the Karankawa Indian tribe for ten pounds of sugar and an unknown quantity of bride, Orta, would stay behind with the other wives and children when their pirate husbands were at sea plying their trade. A severe storm in 1823, however, took Orta's life along with the lives of many other families of the pirates.

Nicholas continued as a seafaring adventurer until 1842 when he "settled down" in Galveston at the age of forty-two. He then earned his living selling fish and oysters and by telling stories about his many adventures. As a respected citizen, Nicholas became well known throughout the community. Just a few days before reaching his 100th birthday, Captain Nicholas died in the 1900 hurricane that wreaked havoc among the Galvestonians.

Story of higher education in Cowtown

Higher education gets news coverage in both mass and social media, and much, I'm sure, is true. Technology is changing it at warp speed, and the old descriptions we used to toss about no longer fit.

We joked that colleges had buildings where "ivy is creeping around on the outside and teachers are creeping around on the inside." Other bromides come to mind, but none seem to fit well in the ever-changing framework of what higher education is all about.

Greek philosophers considered the topic centuries ago, asking, "Whom, then, shall we call educated?" Then, they proceeded to answer their own questions, claiming that education should enable students to deal effectively with the circumstances they encounter day by day. It still fits, right?...

Truth to tell, institutions must be open to change. After all, many of them have changed their names, and several times at that. What formerly were known as "teachers' colleges" head the list.

When colleges started popping up in Texas – most of them in the early 1900s – a word included in most names was "normal."

Real old-timers, longest of tooth and grayest of beard, remember or heard tell of such colleges, including Sam Houston State Normal College, with these three last names also applying to such institutions as North Texas, Southwest Texas, Sul Ross, East Texas and West Texas.

They removed "normal" from their names, a decision perhaps worthy of applause. Many changed their three final words to "State Teachers' College," then came "State College," followed by "State University." (During the 1960s-1970s, many colleges decided "university" had a better ring to it. Later, some joined the systems of two other institutions -The University of Texas and Texas A&M University. However, those are whole 'nuther stories.)...

This column centers on unusual happenings at two Fort Worth higher education institutions – Texas Christian University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Both provided recent front-page stories mere days apart in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

TCU leaders promised placement of the "big pot into the little one" for its 150th anniversary observance this year, and Southwestern announced sale of Carroll Park – a 24-acre tract with one and two-bedroom housing – to the City of Fort Worth for $11 million....

TCU has been its official name since 1902, but founding brothers Addison and Randolph Clark called it "Add-Ran Male and Female College" in the early years. About the time of TCU's founding 150 years ago, Fort Worth was saddled with bawdiness associated with the joint impact of railroads and Chisholm Trail cattle drives. Afraid that this setting could corrupt students' minds, the Clark brothers relocated the school to Thorp Spring, some 40 miles away, a few miles from Granbury.

Enrollment grew there from a few dozen students to more than 400 from 1873-1895. It was known for being "seven miles from any known sin."

Then came another relocation, this time to Waco. In 1910, TCU moved back to Fort Worth, where the sprawling campus of some 300 acres now is home to some 11,000 students. It may be the only higher education institution in the US that has been located in three communities, one of them twice.....

At Southwestern, such a sale is a head-scratcher, particularly since this was the world's largest theological seminary during the 1970s and 1980s.

News accounts indicate that Fort Worth plans to utilize the housing for homeless families.

When Christ returns, His arrival might be at the very spot where Cowtown homeless abide....

Presidents of higher education institutions these days seem to be on ground as shaky as football coaches whose school alumni promise to "support them always - win or tie."

Average presidential tenure now is about four years, and Dr. Kenneth Ashworth, longtime Texas Commissioner of Higher Education, saw the entanglements coming.

Fact is, presidents are re-reading his delightful 2001 book, Caught Between the Dog and the Fireplug: How to Survive Public Service....

DHDC shows girls entomology isn't

For their Girls Who Science program happening Monday, April 3 at 4:45 p.m., the Don Harrington Discovery Center is bringing in an amateur entomologist and conservationist as their guest speaker.

Amarillo local and Texas native Kathleen Guerrero has had a lifelong hobby of collecting insects, arachnids, and myriapods along with a fascination of animals. With over 89 cases of collected specimens from the 48 countries she's visited, Guerrero has dedicated her 30 year teaching career and volunteer work to educating others about animals as well as protecting wild species and habitats.

Guerrero has volunteered at the Don Harrington Discovery Center, Wildcat Bluff Nature Center, Amarillo Botanical Gardens, Window on a Wider World Collaborative, libraries, schools, and many other groups wanting to learn from her.

This program is the first Monday of every month from 4:45 pm to 6:15 p.m.

Esteemed women professionals in the STEM industry are brought in for conversations, a presentation, and Q&A's with young women aspiring to go into STEM. After the presentation from the guest speaker, the Discovery Center will also provide an activity related to their field of study and a snack for participants during a break in the program.

Medicine, engineering, coding, biology, and animal science are just the start of what DHDC plans to cover in this program. Young women in upper elementary school through high school are encouraged to attend.

sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

NOTICE OF COMPLIANCE TARIFF FILING

Southwestern Electric Power Company (SWEPCO) filed with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission) on March 21, 2023, its Petition requesting approval of its proposed Military Base Surcharge Tariff.

Section 36.354(a) of the Public Utility Regulatory Act (PURA), at Texas Utilities Code § 36.354, provides that each electric utility in an area where implementation of full customer choice has been delayed by the Commission in accordance with PURA Section 39.103 shall discount charges for electric service provided to a military base. Section 36.354(b) of PURA establishes the discount to be provided to military installations as a 20 percent reduction of the base commercial rate that the electric utility would otherwise charge the installation.

Section 36.354(c) of PURA provides that the electric utility may assess a surcharge to all its Texas retail customers to recover the difference in revenue between the revenues from the discounted rate for military bases and the base commercial rate. SWEPCO's Tariff Sheet No. IV-16 provides the Military Base Adjustment Factor per billing kWh as reflected below:

MONTHLY FACTOR

Major Rate Classes	$/kWh
Residential	$0.0000866
Commercial & Small Industrial	$0.0000637
Industrial / Large Lighting and Power	$0.0000274
Municipal	$0.0000623
Outdoor Lighting	$0.0001141

SWEPCO has requested that the tariff become effective with the first billing cycle of June 2023. The Petition has been assigned Tariff Control No. 54778. Persons who wish to intervene in or comment upon this proceeding must notify the Commission within 21 days of SWEPCO's filing of the Petition. A request to intervene or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, P.O. Box 13326, Austin, Texas 78711-3326. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Commission at (512) 936-7120 or (888) 782-8477. Hearing and speech-impaired individuals with text telephones (TTY) may contact the Commission at (800) 735-2988. The Company can be contacted at 428 Travis Street, Shreveport, LA 71101, or by calling (888) 216-3523 during normal business hours.
