Benson earns run at state meet

By Sandy Anderberg

Freshman Madi Benson has begun to develop her speed in the 400m all season. After a district championship in that event, Benson took her talent to the Regional Meet in Canyon at WTAMU last week where she captured third place with a time of 1:00.33 just a half of a second out of first place.

Benson was sixth in the prelims with a time of 1:03.46. Benson's third place finish earned her the wild card to compete in the state meet May 11-13.

The Lady Bronco mile relay competed in the meet and finished 10th in the prelims with a time of 4:28.11 and was run by Kenidee Hayes, Berkley Moore, Elliot Frausto, and Benson. The 400m relay also ran and finished 13th in the prelims. Running that relay was Moore, Hayes, Baylee Gabel, and Benson. Frausto also ran the 800m at a time of 2:36.87 which was good enough for 11th place.

On the men's side, Kaleb Bolin ran the 400m dash in a time of 54.23 in the prelims for 10th place.

Lyric Smith placed sixth in the high jump with a jump of 6' and turned in a distance of 20'3 1/4" in the long jump.

CC represented in new leadership academy

The Texas Success Center announced Monday the first cohort of the Texas Leadership Academy for Student Success, which will include two Clarendon College representatives.

This leadership development program is designed to provide mid-level community college faculty and staff with the critical skills and knowledge to improve student outcomes. Clarendon College has two representatives to participate in the 2023-2024 Texas Success Center Leadership Academy. Chancey King and Rodney Donahue were selected by Clarendon College President Tex Buckhaults.

Nationally, community colleges often struggle to attract and retain the talented leaders they need to implement evidence-based reforms that help more students succeed. This project, which is made possible by generous funding from the Ascendium Education Group, the ECMC Foundation, and the Kresge Foundation, aims to address this challenge by strengthening the pipeline of leaders within colleges.

Texas is joining New York and Michigan in this project and will lead two cohorts of mid-level practitioners through the year-long curriculum. The first cohort of the Texas Leadership Academy for Student Success is comprised of 40 faculty and staff from 22 community colleges.

"The Texas Leadership Academy is a crucial investment in the future of Texas as it prepares community college leaders with the tools and knowledge they need to enhance student success and support workforce development across the state," said Dr. Cynthia Ferrell, Executive Director of the Texas Success Center. "We appreciate the philanthropic support from our education partners at Ascendium, ECMC and the Kresge Foundation for developing a program that will pay dividends for generations to come."

The National Center for Inquiry & Improvement is leading this project with colleagues at the Aspen College Excellence Program and the Success Center for Ohio's Community Colleges. The curriculum for this project draws on Aspen's Curriculum for Community College Excellence and includes the following content sessions: The Essential Roles of Leadership in Student Success; Keeping Students' End Goals in Mind; The Student Experience; Leadership Traits to Drive Change;

Managing and Advancing Institutional Change; and Effective External Partnerships & the Leadership Journey.

The project partners will support the selected states as they replicate Ohio's successful program over the next three years.

"Many community colleges are working to improve student success, but one of the most common disruptions to their reform efforts is the transition of critical staff members with no one ready to replace them," said Chris Baldwin, Senior Fellow at the National Center for Inquiry & Improvement.

"The Leadership Academy for Student Success is designed to help colleges build a bench of mid-level employees who are adequately prepared to step into vacated leadership roles."

District Lions Clubs convene in Clarendon

District 2-T1 Lions Clubs gathered in Clarendon April 22 for fun, fellowship, and service during their annual convention.

Activities began that morning at the Bairfield Activity Center before local and area Lions began work on the first of two ramps built that day. The Texas Ramp project provided funding for the ramps for two local residents with Lions providing the labor for installation.

Lions remaining at the Bairfield enjoyed training from Past District Governor Ryan Hodge as they discussed the best methods for fostering new Lions Clubs.

The district's business meeting was held at the Bairfield at noon, led by District Governor Roger Estlack of Clarendon, with lunch provided by the Lions Alert program.

Afternoon service projects included the completion of the second ramp project, the planting of a tree at the Lions Hall under the direction of Lion David Dockery, and the preparation of 500 bags of Texas peanuts as gifts for the attendees of this month's state Lions convention in Ft. Worth.

Special guest Past International Director Justin Faber also conducted training for incoming club officers during the afternoon.

Lions then gathered at the Lions Hall for bingo games, district voting, and hospitality. The election confirmed Ryan Monroe of Canyon as District Governor-elect, Chris Rogers of Lake Tanglewood as First Vice District Governor-elect, and Deanna Porter of Canyon as Second Vice District Governor-elect. They will take office July 1.

During the banquet that evening, PID Faber provided the keynote address on serving our communities, and several Lions received recognitions from the DG.

Past District Governor Henry Wyckoff and Lion Gemma Mitchell, both of Amarillo, received International Presidential Appreciation Certificates. Boss Lion Landon "El Jefe" Lambert and Lion Anndria Newhouse, both of Clarendon, received International Leadership Medals, and Lion Heath Hodge of Canyon received the International President's Award, the second highest award in Lionism.

Lion David Dockery was presented with the District Governor's Special Recognition Award.

Second Vice District Governor Chris Rogers received the Lions Legacy Award, and First Vice District Governor Ryan Monroe received a framed photograph of a sunset at the Palo Duro Canyon Lighthouse in honor of his upcoming year as governor.

Clarendon High School junior Jacob Murillo was recognized as the District 2-T1 Diabetic Essay Contest winner. Wellington High School senior Summer Owens was also recognized as the district's Outstanding Youth Award winner.

PID Faber presented several pins as well, including to DG Estlack; his Partner in Service, Lion Ashlee Estlack; and their children, Ben and Ella Estlack for their service together as a family.

Elections to be held Saturday

Voters will head to the polls this Saturday, May 6, for elections for the cities of Clarendon and Hedley and the Clarendon Consolidated Independent School District.

Early voting closed Tuesday; and by 4:00 p.m., election officials in Hedley reported 21 people had cast early ballots while 112 people had cast ballots at the Donley County Courthouse Annex for the city and CCISD.

On the Clarendon CISD ballot, voters will select two school board members from among three candidates – incumbent Chrise Tucek is joined on the ballot by candidates Mike Word and Ginnie Siefkas.

Clarendon residents will decide for or against reauthorizing the one-quarter cent sales tax for street maintenance. The tax is already in place but must be reauthorized by voters periodically. It raises about $60,000 per year that is dedicated to street maintenance.

The Clarendon city ballot also includes the candidacies of Mayor Jacob Fangman and Aldermen Terri Floyd and Eulaine McIntosh. Those candidates are all unopposed.

Hedley has six candidates running for three positions on the city council. Incumbents Trisha Chambliss, Alicia Hanes, and Jennifer Floyd are facing challengers Christine Coyle, Calvin Holland, and Tanya White Gibson.

Polling Saturday for the City of Clarendon and Clarendon CISD will be in the Donley County Courthouse Annex from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., and Hedley voters cast ballots at Hedley City Hall also from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

Election results will be posted Saturday evening on ClarendonLive.com and Facebook.com/TheEnterprise.

SBA offering disaster loans in Donley Co.

Small nonfarm businesses in Donley County and seven neighboring counties are now eligible to apply for low interest federal disaster loans from the US Small Business Administration, according to Director Tanya N. Garfield of SBA's Disaster Field Operations Center-West.

These loans offset economic losses because of reduced revenues caused by drought in the following primary county that began April 11, 2023.

Donley County is the primary county for the relief. Neighboring counties include Armstrong, Briscoe, Carson, Collingsworth, Gray, Hall, and Wheeler.

"SBA eligibility covers both the economic impacts on businesses dependent on farmers and ranchers that have suffered agricultural production losses caused by the disaster and businesses directly impacted by the disaster," Garfield said.

Small nonfarm businesses, small agricultural cooperatives, small businesses engaged in aquaculture and most private nonprofit organizations of any size may qualify for Economic Injury Disaster Loans of up to $2 million to help meet financial obligations and operating

Team roll call, sixty years later

It would be daunting for researchers half his age, but it didn't stop Dr. Ray Van Cleef from reconnecting with his baseball players from six decades ago.

The longtime Texas community college administrator couldn't resist trying. Late in 2022, the search began.

At age 94, he employed the usual communications efforts – some of them dead ends – to reach Sul Ross State University baseball players he coached in Alpine, TX, from 1958-1964....

Relying on email, letters, phones and word of mouth, he wanted to reconnect with the 75 athletes he coached. For many, he could find no contact information. A few are deceased, and some simply failed to answer his appeals.

Fifteen responded, however, providing information about their lives, careers and offspring.

"I'm extremely proud of these men, all of whom have contributed positively to society, most of them in leadership positions," Dr. Van Cleef said. "Though they played sports at a small college, they've given much to make a better world..."

One reason for his determination to identify and showcase his athletes is that he was discouraged by some educators during his junior high years, called "too short," and even worse.

One even tried to talk him out of taking college preparatory classes.

A coach, however, was an encourager. Perhaps he was most responsible for Van Cleef's attending Rutgers University, where he played on the baseball team that participated in the College World Series and was named the most valuable player.....

He wants this column to spotlight the athletes, however, not him. It was he, though, who spent countless weeks, even months, collecting data. (I was honored to help get his booklet into final form, and it should be noted that the respondents are joyous that they now have ways to contact their old coach and each other.)

Nutshell wrap-up: Mike Compton, Billy Carthel, Jerry Tyson, Gregg Slape, Wilbur Huckle and Jerry Tyson played professional baseball. Buddy Antwine, brothers Robert and Frank Bice, Leldon Hensley, Ronnie Stephens and Marshall Bise were educators/coaches. Tom Cunningham was in pharmacy; Fred Davis, a State District Judge, and Daryle Gibbens, state insurance executive.

Four are members of the Sul Ross Hall of Honor, including Compton, Slape, Davis and Hudson. Hudson, the first three-sport letterman, was the Lobos' football quarterback, baseball second-baseman and one season was national basketball free throw leader, hitting 90.1 percent.....

Judge Davis might well have considered comedy, what with his experiences on the bench. Among his memories are excuses prospective jurors have used to avoid serving. One stands out. The prospect said he wouldn't be able to serve, since his wife would be "conceiving a baby that day."

"Don't you mean delivering?" Davis countered.

The plea continued. "Either way, I need to be present." Not sure if this worked....

Space prohibits deserved attention to all respondents, but some details must be included. Frank Bice, accomplished life insurance executive and speaker, first coached. His boys' basketball teams averaged 27 wins annually for a decade. Compton – who spent his baseball career with the Philadelphia Phillies – developed an English as a Second Language Program that was eventually expanded for all Latin American players. Carthel provided the greatest individual sports moment for me when I was Sports Information Director at Sul Ross.

I was thrilled when the Lobos had jumped to a big lead over the University of Arizona Wildcats in Tucson. Not surprisingly, the Cats whittled away at the deficit, and in the bottom of the ninth were trailing 11-10, with bases loaded and nobody out.

Frustrated that all pitchers had been used, Van Cleef asked if any of the other players had ever pitched. Third-baseman Carthel – responding that he had pitched in Little League – took over, striking out two and getting an infield pop-up to end the game and preserve the win. Days prior to the publication of Van Cleef's booklet, Carthel was claimed by COPD. He was 79....

The Orange was a grand old hotel

It was a grand hotel, – a source of great pride for the Dutch settlers who established and settled in Nederland, Texas. Built in 1897 by the Port Arthur Land Company, the Orange Hotel provided temporary housing for the Dutch immigrants upon their arrival from Holland.

The Orange Hotel was a three-story wooden edifice containing 31 sleeping rooms plus a large room for dining and dancing. The dining room featured a large brick fireplace that added warmth during cold winter days and evenings. The first floor contained one or two additional fireplaces. Brick chimneys went up from these fireplaces, and those sleeping rooms through which the chimneys passes had their own small fireplaces. The hotel also had a library stocked with over a thousand books in the Dutch language. The builders painted the exterior of the hotel a bright orange, and they named it the "Orange Hotel," all in honor of the Dutch royal family of Orange.

The Orange Hotel was built to provide comfortable room and board at inexpensive rates to Dutch immigrants until they could secure their own land and build their own home. As an example, one family, the Gerrit Terway family stayed twelve days at the hotel and paid $16.50 for their room, meals, and laundry. In the April 12, 1898 issue of De Grondwet (The Constitution), an immigrant reported that "those who traveled with me were thankful for the care that they received at a moderate price from Mr. Ellings, manager of the Orange Hotel."

Not only did the Orange Hotel serve the immediate needs of arriving immigrants, it quickly became the center of social life for Nederland residents. Dances were held every two weeks. Box suppers and picnics were frequent affairs. Ice cream became a new and enjoyable treat for the Dutch arrivals. As the community gathered for these festive occasions, romances bloomed and marriage proposals were made.

The most festive occasion in the Orange Hotel was its celebration of the coronation of Holland's Queen Wilhelmina. Various committees worked feverishly for weeks making preparations. All was in readiness on the appointed day. American, Texas, and Dutch flags were flying throughout the town. Every building in Nederland was appropriately decorated. A large picture of the Queen, decorated with orange bunting and evergreens, hung above the entrance to the hotel's dining room. A band came up from Port Arthur to provide music for the occasion. Special trains from Port Arthur and Beaumont brought large crowds of ladies and gentlemen from those cities.

At 9:00 the band gathered in front of the hotel and led the crowd to King's Park where dignitaries planted a memorial tree and made speeches. The speakers gave a brief sketch of the young queen's life, and they recounted the formation of the Dutch colony at Nederland. The band played "God Save vignettes tales of the old west by george u. hubbard

the Queen," and then led the participants back to the hotel where ample quantities of Dutch beer were enjoyed.

Races, various other contests, and more music and singing came next with enthusiastic participation. Then it was time for dinner. And what a meal it was. The menu was as follows: Hollandische Oranje Soup (Dutch Orange Soup); Gekookte Visch, Boter Saus (Boiled Fish, Butter Sauce); Aardappelen (Potatoes); Roost Bief (Roast Beef); Gestooftde Savoije Kool (Stewed Savoy Cabbage); Gebraden Kip (Roast Chicken); Appel Saus (Apple Sauce); Vrijheida Taart (Liberty Cake); and Kalfa Carbonade (Veal Cutlets)

During dinner there were more speeches and then the people went outside for more games, races, and contests. Late in the day additional trains arrived with celebrants who came for the evening activities that featured dancing, singing, and an elaborate fireworks display.

It had been a grand celebration, and it was after midnight before the last of the celebrants retired for the night.

The Orange Hotel continued as Nederland's social center for a decade, but it began declining in importance as newer and larger hotels sprang up in Beaumont and Port Arthur. Finally, after a severe storm in 1915, its doors were closed and it was torn down. It remained as a treasured memory, however, in the minds of many hundreds of people who had enjoyed its elegance and its hospitality.

State pursues health innovations

By Charles Miller, Texas 2036 Senior Policy Advisor

With each passing year, access to affordable health care is a barrier to more and more Texas families and a greater strain on employers' budgets. The Texas Legislature is taking steps to address this through innovative, bipartisan action to foster competition, create more transparency and encourage a healthy market for health care.

House Bill 711, by state Rep. James Frank, R-Wichita Falls, and co-authored by state Reps. Sam Harless, R-Spring, Greg Bonnen, R-Friendswood, and James Talarico, D-Round Rock, passed the Texas House last week on a 146-0 vote.

It seeks to address a leading cause of higher prices — an unhealthy market consisting of high market concentrations and business practices that limit choices and innovation.

Currently, the total cost of employer-sponsored insurance averages $22,000 per year, which is nearly one-third of the median household income in Texas. These rising costs can be attributed, in part, to Texas' hospital market consolidation, which is well above the national average.

HB 711 is just one piece of a package of health care bills designed to make the state's health care markets healthy through a more informed, competitive and engaging system.

Other bills under consideration in the Legislature offer innovative approaches to creating healthy markets: expanding existing price transparency requirements, improving the availability of information on provider quality, empowering patients to be smart shoppers, and rewarding them when they are.

Texans deserve access to affordable, high-quality health care, and the Legislature is taking important steps toward making this a reality. This package of bills aims to provide Texans with choices and enough information to make a good choice, while ensuring that they're rewarded for doing so. Given the potential benefit these efforts will have on everyday Texans, we hope more people will be able to engage in the conversations around health care reform.

The bills under consideration would help improve the three requirements for healthy markets: transparent information, abundant competition and aligned incentives. The bills under consideration address all these issues and offer a path forward toward affordable, high-quality health care for all Texans.

The 88th Legislature has an opportunity to build upon existing price transparency requirements, eliminate restrictions preventing disclosure of quality information, address the growing impact of consolidation and market power, and limit the potential of private equity to add hidden fees to your bill.

Lawmakers can also ensure when health benefit plans encourage enrollees to obtain a health care service from a particular provider that they do so for the primary benefit of the enrollee.

Over the years, Texas legislators have been adopting measures around hospital price transparency and the elimination of surprise medical bills. Prioritizing healthy markets is the single most important thing the state can do to help empower employers to provide more affordable health care for their employees during this legislative session.

Property owners have the right to protest actions concerning their property tax appraisals. You may follow these appeal procedures if you have a concern about:

- the appraised (market) value of your property
- the unequal value of your property compared with other properties
- the inclusion of your property on the appraisal roll
- any exemptions that may apply to you
- the qualification for an agricultural or timber appraisal
- the taxing units taxing your property
- the property ownership
- the change of use of land receiving special appraisal
- failure of the chief appraiser or appraisal review board (ARB) to send a required notice
- any action taken by the chief appraiser, appraisal district (CAD) or ARB that applies to and adversely affects you.

Informal Review
For information about informal review and obtaining property tax records, call _____ your appraisal district at the number listed on the Notice of Appraised Value.

Review by the ARB
If you cannot resolve your problem informally with the CAD, you may file a notice of protest requesting to have your case heard by the ARB.

The ARB is an independent board of citizens that hears and determines protests regarding property appraisals or other concerns listed above. It has the power to order the CAD to make the necessary changes based on evidence heard during the ARB hearing.

If you file a written request for an ARB hearing (notice of protest) before the deadline, the ARB will set your case for a hearing and send you written notice of the time, date and place of the hearing. If necessary, you may request a hearing in the evening or on a Saturday or Sunday. You may use Comptroller Form 50-132, Property Appraisal - Notice of Protest, to file your written request for an ARB hearing.

Prior to your hearing, you may ask to review the evidence the CAD plans to introduce at the hearing to establish any matter at issue. Before a hearing on a protest or immediately after the hearing begins, you or your agent and the CAD are required to provide each other with a copy of any materials (evidence) intended to be offered or submitted to the ARB at the hearing. Evidence may be submitted for any hearing type either in paper or on a small portable electronic device (such as a CD, USB flash drive or thumb drive) which will be kept by the ARB. Do NOT bring evidence on a smart phone. The ARB's hearing procedures regarding all the requirements to properly submit evidence on a small portable electronic device must be reviewed.

To the greatest extent practicable, the hearing will be informal. You or a designated agent may appear in person or you may by telephone conference call or submission of written affidavit to present your evidence, facts and argument.

If you decide to participate by telephone conference call, you must provide your evidence to the ARB with a written affidavit before the ARB hearing begins. You may use the Comptroller Form 50-283, Property Owner's Affidavit of Evidence to the Appraisal Review Board, to submit evidence for your telephone conference call hearing or for the hearing by affidavit.

You and the CAD representative have the opportunity to present evidence about your case. You may cross-examine the CAD representative. The ARB will make its decision based on the evidence presented by both parties. In most cases, the CAD has the burden of establishing the property's value by a preponderance of the evidence presented.

In certain protests, the chief appraiser has the burden of proving the property's value by clear and convincing evidence. You should review ARB hearing procedures to learn more about evidence and related matters.

You should not try to contact ARB members outside of the hearing. ARB members are required sign-an affidavit saying that they have not talked about your case before the ARB hears it.

Review by the District Court, an Arbitrator or SOAH
After it decides your case, the ARB must send you a copy of its order by certified mail. If you are not satisfied with the ARB's decision, you have the right to appeal to district court. As an alternative to district court, you may appeal through binding arbitration or the State Office of Administrative Hearings (SOAH) if you meet the qualifying criteria.

If you choose to go to district court, you must start the process by filing a petition with the district court within 60 days of the date you receive the ARB's order. If you chose to appeal through binding arbitration, you must file a request for binding arbitration with the CAD not later than the 45th day after you receive notice of the ARB order. If you choose to appeal to the SOAH, you must file an appeal with the CAD not later than the 30th day after you receive notice of the ARB's order. Appeals to district court, binding arbitration or SOAH all require payment of certain fees or deposits.

Tax Payment
You must pay either the amount of taxes due on the portion of the taxable value not in dispute, the amount of taxes due on the property under the order from which the appeal is taken or the amount of taxes due in the previous year.

More Information
You can get more information by contacting your appraisal district at the address and telephone number shown on the Notice of Appraised Value. You can get Comptroller forms and additional information on how to prepare a protest from the Comptroller's website at comptroller.texas.gov/taxes/property-tax/.

Usual Deadline:
Deadline for Filing Protest with the ARB*
For ARB changes (the ARB has informed you of a change that

Not later than May 15 (or within 30 days after a notice of appraised value was mailed to you, whichever is later).

Late protests are allowed for good cause if you miss the usual deadline. The ARB decides whether you have a good cause. Late protests are not allowed after the ARB approves the appraisal records for the year.

Special Deadlines
For change of use (the appraisal district informed you that you are losing agricultural appraisal because you changed the use of your land), the deadline is not later than the 30th day after the notice of the determination was delivered to you.

increases your tax liability and the change did not result from a protest you filed), the deadline is not later than the 30th day after the notice of the change was delivered to you.

If you believe the CAD or ARB should have sent you a notice and did not, you may file a protest until the day before taxes become delinquent (usually February 1) or no later than the 125 day after the date you claim you received a tax bill from one or more of the taxing units that tax your property. The ARB decides whether it will hear your case based on evidence about whether a required notice was mailed to you.

The deadline is postponed to the next business day if it falls on a weekend or legal, state or national holiday.

Fun By The Numbers

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

TxDOT says more dying in motorcycle crashes

As motorcycle fatalities continue to rise and the spring weather draws more riders to Texas roadways, TxDOT is urging drivers to look twice and be considerate on the road around motorcycle riders.

Amy Jo Miller was enjoying a ride on the back of her boyfriend's motorcycle in Bell County when an inattentive driver turned left in front of them, hitting the bike and throwing her across the road. Seconds later, another vehicle then ran her over in a hit-and-run crash, leaving her with multiple serious injuries. Fortunately, she survived, but 15 years later, Amy Jo is still recovering from her injuries.

Amy Jo, now 49, is just one of thousands of Texas motorcyclists seriously injured—or worse, killed—in crashes every year.

In 2022, 562 motorcycle riders were killed in motor vehicle crashes, an 8% increase over the previous year.

“People on motorcycles are more vulnerable on our roadways,” said TxDOT Executive Director Marc Williams. “It’s important for drivers to pay extra attention and look out for motorcycles — especially at intersections, when turning in front of oncoming traffic and while changing lanes. We all want to get home safe.”

In addition to National Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month, TxDOT’s annual safety campaign “Share the Road: Look Twice for Motorcycles” also aims to protect motorcyclists by educating drivers on how to safely share the road. Below are safety precautions all motorists should keep in mind to help prevent motorcycle crashes:

Stay alert. Give driving your full attention. Even a momentary distraction, such as answering a phone call or changing the radio station, can have deadly consequences.

Pay special attention at intersections. One-third of all motorcycle fatalities happen at roadway intersections.

Take extra care when making a left turn. Always assume motorcycles are closer than they appear and avoid turning in front of an oncoming motorcycle.

Look twice when changing lanes. Check mirrors, check blind spots, and always use turn signals.

Give motorcyclists room when passing them. Move over to the passing lane and don’t crowd the motorcyclist’s full lane.

Stay back. If you’re behind a motorcycle, always maintain a safe following distance. When a motorcyclist downshifts, it can catch drivers off guard since there are no brake lights to signal reduced speed.

Slow down. Obey posted speed limits and drive according to conditions.

To help drivers fully understand the importance of driving safely and the dangers motorcycle riders face, TxDOT is taking its “Share the Road: Look Twice for Motorcycles” campaign exhibit on the road during National Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month. The exhibit will feature a virtual reality component that gives participants the opportunity to experience high-risk traffic situations from the perspective of both a driver and a motorcyclist.

TxDOT’s “Share the Road: Look Twice for Motorcycles” campaign is a key component of #EndTheStreakTX, a broader social media and word-of-mouth effort that encourages drivers to make safer choices while behind the wheel to help end the streak of daily deaths. Nov. 7, 2000, was the last deathless day on Texas roadways.

Broncos named District Champs

By Sandy Anderberg

One hit away from a perfect game, Wilson Ward only allowed one hit in the Broncos' shutout over Memphis last week at 10-0.

Ward went the distance in five innings and managed seven strikeouts in his 89 pitches. He had two walks but no errors in the win. The win gave the Broncos the district championship and a great spot in the playoffs.

The Bronco offense didn't mess around and got on the board early on a Cyclone error in the field. They were able to put three runs on the board in the opening inning.

After a dry second inning, the Bronco's made a statement at the plate. Multiple hits by several players allowed the Broncos to pad their lead with five runs in the third and added two in the fourth.

Junior Lyric Smith led the way with two hits, two runs, and as many stolen bases. Harrison Howard also connected on two hits in his three at-bats with two runs, two hits, and 2 RBIs. Tyler Harper, Levi Gates, and Colton Caudle had one hit apiece and Jared Musick earned one RBI. Grant Haynes, Ward, and Mason Sims added to the eight stolen base total.

The Broncos will play West Texas High School on Thursday at 5:00 p.m. and Friday at 4:00 p.m. at Tascosa High School for the Bi-District Championship.

Lady Broncos set for playoff game with Forsan Friday

By Sandy Anderberg

The Lady Broncos finished regular season play with an 8-3 win over Sunray last week. The Lady Broncos are set to match up against Forsan in a best of two out of three series in the Area Round May 5-6 at Lubbock Cooper.

The first game will begin at 4pm with a second game May 6 at 11am. Game three, if needed, will follow immediately after game two.

The Lady Broncos battled hard in their win over Sunray. Tandie Cummins started on the mound going five innings to earn the win. Cummins only allowed five hits and three runs. She walked one and struck out two. Kennadie Cummins threw one inning in relief allowing two hits and posting two strikeouts.

The ladies were able to put two runs on the board early in the game when K. Cummins singled on a 2-0 count that scored one run. They never stopped swinging and they were able to put three runs up in the second and the fourth to secure their lead. T. Cummins, K. Cummins, and Gracie Wilkins all drove in runs in the fourth. K. Cummins had two hits in her three at-bats that scored three runs. She had one RBI and one walk. T. Cummins scored one run on two hits and posted one RBI. Senior Baylee Gabel took the plate three times and accumulated three RBIs and Bayleigh Bruce brought in two runs.

The Lady Broncos had five hits overall to seven for Sunray. However, Sunray committed four more errors in the field than Clarendon. In the team total of seven total stolen bases, Bruce was credited with three and Hayden Elam stole two.

What's Blowing in the Wind?

A gentle breeze is refreshing. A hurricane wind causes destruction. Wind-driven rain cleanses the air. Wind spreads the pollen and seeds of trees and plants. Many things are carried by moving air. Can you use the 12 clues to fill in this crossword with the names of things blowing in the wind?

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular Tuesday noon meeting with Boss Lion Pro Tem David Dockery in charge.

We had 13 Lions in person, one Lion online, Sweetheart Laney Gates, and four guests this week. Our guests were Lion L.B. Snider of the Amarillo North Lions Club and his son, Daniel Snider; Gannon Broussard, guest of Lion Nathan Estlack; and Ted Shaller.

Lion Jacob Fangman reported on the city and said the sidewalk project should start soon and interviews for city administrator will be held May 10. He encouraged everyone to go vote in the city election Saturday. Lion Dockery also said the city is working with the county and with Howardwick to bring better broadband access to the communities.

Lion Scarlet Estlack reported on the college, and it was announced that Lion Nathan and Sweetheart Laney will be graduating with their associate's degrees. Sweetheart Laney also reported on the high school baseball and softball playoffs.

Lion John Howard reported on the county, and Lion Richard Green reported a fundraiser will be held Saturday at the Lions Hall to benefit Coy Cooper. A Mexican pile-on will be held from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Mr. Shaller spoke on the Christ Kids Ministry program and particularly the summer lunch program, which feeds 90-100 kids five days a week. The cost of the program is about $10,000. The club donated $500 toward the program.

Next week will be officer elections.
