Rowdy Bebout

Rowdy Lane Bebout, son of Seth and Morgan Bebout and Ashley and James Ledford, attended Clarendon High School his sophomore through senior year. Rowdy participated in football, all three years, and baseball, his senior year. He was a member of the area qualifying One Act Play. Rowdy competed in current issues and events, Lincoln Douglas debate, and persuasive speaking with UIL. He was the chaplain of the FFA chapter and was a member of the range team. Rowdy enjoyed taking history and agriculture classes. Rowdy worked, during high school, at CanTex Feeders LP. After graduation, Rowdy plans on enlisting in the Navy and eventually becoming a state trooper.

Kyler Bell

Kyler Brand Bell is the son of Jackie and Kasey Bell. He played football and basketball for four years and participated in track for three years. Kyler was named football team captain in 2025. He was a member of the CHS Student Council for three years and NHS for one year. Kyler was elected CHS Class President his junior and senior year. Kyler held multiple leadership roles in FFA as Chapter Treasurer and Captain of the Range Team. He was named the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce Young Man of the Year. Through 4-H, Kyle served in several county leadership roles and is the current First Vice President. He earned the Gold Star Award in 2024 along with his Beef Quality Assurance certification. Kyler volunteered with the Donley Courthouse Lighting Committee and Small Town Christmas Committee. After high school, Kyler plans on attending Austin College while pursuing a degree in business administration.

Madilyn Benson

Madilyn Elizabeth Benson, daughter of Robert and Chrisit Benson and Jaclyn Griffin, lived in Clarendon her entire life and attended CISD since Pre-K. Madi was a cheerleader and Sparky while in high school. She played basketball all four years, advancing to the regional final her junior year. In cross country, she ran at the state meet her junior and senior year and qualified for the state track meet the last three years, with a strong chance to be there in both the 800m and 1600m this spring. Madi has won regional honors in FCCLA all four years and has been a member of NHS for three. Madilyn is currently considering her offers to run in college and will pursue a job in the medical field.

Joshua Blais

Joshua Alan Blais is the son of Corey and Angela Blais. While he did not start his education here in Clarendon, Joshua did attend Clarendon High School for all four years. During those four years, Josh was very active in the Bronco Band. He played percussion and enjoyed playing a keyboard solo each year as part of the Christmas and Spring concerts. Joshua earned his letter jacket as well as the Heart of Band Award for his dedication to the program. As a junior, Josh supported the district's Snack Pack 4 Kids program by making deliveries to the elementary each week. He enjoyed taking financial math class this year, and Joshua enjoyed the opportunity of being an office aide. After graduation, Joshua plans to move to Eastland, TX, and continue his education by attending Ranger College.

Dakota Bond

Dakota Lee Bond is the son of Randy and Sis Bond. He has attended CHS since his sophomore year. Dakota participated in basketball and powerlifting his sophomore and junior year, and he was also a member of the basketball and powerlifting team. Dakota also participated in football his senior year. His favorite subject in school was athletics and business/financial class. Dakota worked for Western Equipment throughout his junior and senior year of high school. This fall, he will attend Texas State Technical College (TSTC) to pursue a degree in John Deere Agricultural Technology. His decision to enroll in the John Deere Ag Tech program reflects both his passion for agriculture, and his interest in diesel technology. The specialized program at TSTC will provide him with hands-on training and real-world experience working on advanced agricultural equipment manufactured by John Deere. Through this program, Dakota will gain the technical knowledge and practical skills needed to succeed in a highly competitive and essential industry at John Deere.

Ayden Bordonaro

Ayden Joseph Bordonaro, son of Sharlene and Joshua Bordonaro, was a member of the Clarendon High School Bronco Band for all four years of his high school. In his freshman year, he earned a Division I rating with an euphonium solo with a Class III piece. He was presented the John Philip Sousa Award his junior year. His senior year, Ayden, became the Drum Major for the Bronco Marching Band and achieved a Division I rating in an euphonium solo with a Class I piece. Ayden also participated in UIL Editorial Writing and Science where he placed sixth and fifth place individually. He was a member of the National Honor Society, and Ayden became an actor for the One Act Play that advanced to Area his senior year. He earned Honor C's in Algebra I Honors, Principles of Arts AV, Interpersonal Studies, Chemistry, and Algebra II. After graduating, Ayden will attend WTAMU and major in clinical psychology.

Nolan Burrow

Nolan Lee Burrow is the son of Byron and Caitlyn Burrow and Mandy McKinney. He played multiple sports in high school. Nolan was a member of the football team as a junior and senior. He also threw shotput and discus in track all four years of high school, participated in power lifting for the last three years of high school, and played tennis his junior year, and baseball freshman and sophomore year. Nolan volunteered with Snack Pack 4 Kids and with CHS ag department. He was a member of FFA his freshman year. After graduation, Nolan plans on studying computer science at West Texas University in Canyon, Texas.

Tyler Cavanaugh, son of Ginnie Siefkas and the late Anthony Cavanaugh, has been a committed student-athlete during his years at Clarendon ISD. He has attended CISD since the sixth grade. Tyler participated in varsity football four years, golf and basketball three years, and two years of track. He volunteered with the Snack Pack 4 Kids program, showing dedication both on campus and in his community. One of Tyler's favorite memories from his senior year was earning first place individually at the Memphis Golf Tournament. After graduation, Tyler plans to attend Oklahoma University to major in Nursing. His goal is to become a trauma nurse practitioner in the burn unit.

Dylan Chest

Dylan Mateo Chest is the son of Angela Cooper and Matthew Chest. Dylan moved to Clarendon towards the end of his freshman year from New York, he moved again at the end of his sophomore year, but came back mid-way through his junior year. Dylan participated in sports such as football, track, and tennis. He enjoyed learning life lessons in his CTE Business pathway. Dylan plans to move to Amarillo after graduation and pursue a career in being a health insurance agent.

Shelby Christopher

Shelby Lynn Christopher is the daughter of Jason and Chandra Christopher. She lived in Clarendon for 17 years. She played softball for all four years of high school as well as being a powerlifter her sophomore and junior year. Her junior year Shelby advanced to regionals in powerlifting where she placed fifth; she also played third base for the softball team, and they advanced to the state semifinals making school history. Shelby was a member of Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA), NHS, and student council. Her favorite subject in school was science. Once she graduates, Shelby plans on attending Wade Gordon's Academy focusing on cosmetology.

Ranger Drenth

Ranger Jade Drenth, son of Jade Drenth and Tanya Bell, attended all four years of high school in Clarendon. He played football all four years and was active in other sports such as baseball and powerlifting. Ranger's favorite subject was English, and he loved helping out in the elementary school's athletic program by coaching kids. He enjoyed helping around the high school as an assistant, and in his junior year, he graduated from college with his associate's degree from Clarendon College. After he graduates, Ranger plans to attend UTSA in San Antonio and pursue a degree in cybersecurity.

MaryJo Dushay

MaryJo Dushay is the daughter of Mike and Anne Dushay. She was a four-year Bronco Cheerleader, selected captain her senior year, and was on the UIL State Spirit Contest Finalist squads her freshman and sophomore years. MaryJo participated in track and was a member of the State Cross Country Team her senior year. She was a 4-H member for 10 years and competed in horse and livestock showing as well as horse judging. MaryJo continued horse judging in FFA and earned her Lone Star FFA Degree. She trained and showed horses at the national level and plans to compete on collegiate ranch horse teams. She has volunteered with the Tri-State Rodeo and Big 5 Horse Show Association. MaryJo will attend Clarendon College then go to Oklahoma State University to study Animal Science with a focus in International Ag Communications.

Gavin Reese Ellerbrook

Gavin Reese Ellerbrook is the son of Rodney William Ellerbrook. He attended Memphis High School before attending Clarendon High School his junior and senior year. He participated in football all through high school, starting when he was in the fourth grade. While attending school, Gavin worked part time on a ranch in Memphis, Texas. He plans on attending trade school at Tulsa Welding School (TWS) to become a certified welder. After completion of trade school, Gavin plans on getting a job within the pipeline welding industry. Ultimately, he would like to start his own welding business, own a ranch, and build his own home.

Gracie Ellis

Gracie Rhea Ellis is the daughter of Guy and Robin Ellis. As a lifelong resident of Clarendon, Gracie attended Clarendon CISD since pre-school. While in high school, she participated in cross country, basketball, cheerleading, golf, tennis, and track. Gracie was named "Lady Bronco Golfer of the Year" in 2023, 2024, and 2025. In addition to athletics, she has been involved in NHS, student council, FCCLA, UIL, and the gifted and talented program. Gracie served as president of the NHS and CHS student council. Outside of school, she has been a member of Donley County 4-H, Texas High School Rodeo Association, Junior Rodeo Cowboys Association, AQHA, and North Texas PGA Junior Golf Association. Gracie was an active participant in Christ's Kids ministry. Gracie earned her Associate of Science degree from Clarendon College, and she plans to study biomedical science to prepare for a career as a pediatric physician assistant.

Brayden Erwin

Braiden Jay Erwin, son of Krystle and Alex Erwin and grandson of Debbie Montgomery, is known for his strong work ethic and dedication. Before attending Clarendon High School, he grew up in Amarillo but also moved back and forth to Illinois. Those experiences taught Braiden to be adaptable and hardworking. During high school, Braiden balanced his studies with a job at Sonic Drive-In, always striving to do his best both in the classroom and at work. He generously donated blood during his junior and senior year, showing his commitment to helping others. Braiden enjoyed the supportive and caring teachers at CHS, and he enjoyed participating in activities alongside his peers. After graduation, Braiden plans to continue working hard and moving forward in life. He plans to relocate to Amarillo and possibly pursue online education while building a successful future through determination and hard work.

Elliot Frausto

Elliot Belle Frausto, daughter of Brandon and Jill Frausto, distinguished herself as an exceptional student, leader, and athlete throughout high school. She graduated at the top of her class while earning an Associates Degree from Clarendon College. Elliot served as Senior Class Vice President, National Honor Society Vice President, and FCCLA Vice President. She was a multi-sport athlete and competed in cheer, cross country, powerlifting, softball, and track. She served as cheer co-captain and helped lead the team to a top ten finish at UIL Spirit Competition. Elliot placed fifth at the THSWPA State Powerlifting Meet. She was a member of the softball team that played in the state semifinals, earning All-District honors. She was accepted to numerous colleges and received multiple offers to compete in collegiate athletics. Elliot plans on attending Midwestern State

Shane Hagood

Shane Jameson Hagood is the son of Brad and Amanda Hagood and Kate and Johnny Ballard. During high school, Shane stayed busy as a proud Bronco athlete. He competed in football, basketball, baseball, and track. Being involved in so many sports showed not only his athletic ability, but also his dedication, teamwork, and strong work ethic. One of Shane's biggest passions was welding through the CHS ag department. He worked hard to build his skills and plans to turn that passion into a career. After graduation, Shane will attend welding school in Nevada, Missouri, to continue learning and improving his craft. His goal is to work in the oil fields as a pipeline welder in Midland, Texas, or possibly become a master welder at the new Al plant in Claude, Texas.

Kenidee Hayes

Kenidee Jade Hayes is the daughter of Brenna Buker and Victor Hayes. She played varsity basketball for the Lady Broncos for four years. Her freshman year she was awarded with Newcomer of the Year, sophomore year earned 1st Team All District, and junior and senior year received defensive MVP. Kenidee was awarded Lady Bronco Player of the Year her sophomore and junior year along with getting All Region recognition. She was the captain of the Lady Bronco Basketball team her senior season. Kenidee also ran cross country and track her freshman, sophomore, and junior year of high school. She was an involved member of National Honor Society, Gifted and Talented, and UIL Academics. In the spring, Kenidee will not only graduate from high school but will also graduate with her Associates Degree from Clarendon College. Kenidee plans on attending Texas Tech University and majoring in elementary education.

Emmarie Holland

Emmarie Holland, daughter of Rhett and Berkeley Holland and Cori Cantrell, participated in both academics and extracurricular activities throughout high school. Emmarie attended CHS starting the second semester of her junior year. She competed in track and cross country at CHS her junior and senior year, including finishing fourth at the state cross country meet with her team her senior year. Emmarie was a member of the CHS Cheerleaders and performed at the UIL State Spirit Championship. Academically, she took all available dual-credit classes, competed in UIL academic events, and achieved her academic goals. She was also a member of Student Council, GT, NHS, FCCLA, and several clubs at West Plains

High School. Emmarie plans to pursue a degree in psychology at West Texas A&M University and will continue working part-time while staying close to her family and friends.

Berkley was a member of the National Honor Society her junior and senior year. She was also involved in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) her entire high school career. Berkley received her associates degree in December from Clarendon College, where she completed all of the prerequisites required for nursing school. Upon high school graduation, Berkley plans to attend Amarillo College in the fall to pursue a career in nursing.

Don'Jae Orr

Don'Jae Jay'Shon La'Jaun Orr grew up in Amarillo, Texas. He attended school in Clarendon his junior year after making the switch from Palo Duro High School. He was an amazing athlete and participated in football, basketball, and track while in high school. Don'Jae volunteered with the Snack Pak 4 Kids while attending CHS and helped take down Christmas lights at the Donley County Courthouse. Don'Jae lost his Grandma and was fighting silent battles his junior year. Also, when he attended high school he was being influenced by the wrong crowd, and this made his grades drop. His coaches told him he was going to be dead or in jail so he wanted to prove them wrong. Don'Jae met the McAnears, and they invited him into their home. He got closer to God and lived life as another son to them. He is very grateful for the McAnear family. Don'Jae plans on playing football after graduation for a few years and then becoming a firefighter in a big city.

Alexis Phillips

Alexis Olivia Phillips is the daughter of Brandon Phillips and the late Kency Morrow. As well as the granddaughter of Sharyn and the late Earl Morrow. Alexis was involved in her church community by helping out in the nursery as well as being a teacher during Vacation Bible School. Her senior year, the cross country team placed fourth at the State Cross Country meet in Round Rock, TX. Her favorite subjects were English, Chemistry, Anatomy and Physiology as well as Social Studies. Alexis walked the stage at Clarendon College on May 8th with an Associates Degree in Science. Alexis was accepted into Amarillo College and Midwestern State University. She plans to attend Midwestern State in the fall and pursue a degree in radiologic technology.

Michael Randall

Michael Demond Lee Randall is the son of Michael

Randall and April Ballard. He played basketball all four years of his high school career. Michael ran track all four years and qualified for area in high jump his junior year. He was named defensive player of the year in basketball his senior year and first team all district in basketball. Michael also received second team all district receiver his senior year.
